Copy of a letter from the Apostolic Delegate, Bangalore, dated the 18th January 1943.

With reference to the two Reverend Sisters, Appiano Luigina and Arduini Raffaella, who have been allowed to do secretarial work for the Apostolic Delegation, I beg to submit the following request:

Although no formal restrictions were placed on them they have not moved from the immediate neighbourhood of the Carmelite Convent on Ali Asker Road. Add to this that they have no special contact with the Carmelite Sisters, who are cloistered, and you can appreciate their need of some physical exercise and companionship. Hence we should like them to be allowed walks and visits to some other convents within a radius the Police authorities may specify. We should be grateful if St.Martha's Hospital could be comprised in the permission.

We vouch for their correct behaviour and conduct.
